

2022 IPMI Professional Recognition Awards Eligibility & Criteria

Professional Recognition Awards recognize the individual contributions of parking, transportation, and mobility industry professionals—our industry's best. Entrants for these prestigious awards may be self- or peer nominated. Nominees must be IPMI members in good standing and there is no nomination fee.

Categories include:

- Professional Excellence Awards in multiple categories.
- Emerging Leader of the Year.
- Organization of the Year.
- James M. Hunnicutt, CAPP, Industry Professional of the Year.

The 2022 Call for Awards is open from January 11 through March 15, 2022.

Professional Excellence Awards Entry Requirements & Criteria

Professional Excellence Awards recognizes excellence for all staff, from the front-line to management. Awards will recognize outstanding performance in a variety of areas.

Nominations should exhibit excellence in the suggested category, in addition to:

- Contribution(s) to the parking, transportation, and mobility industry.
- Professional reputation.
- Creative solutions or innovations.
- IPMI member in good standing.

Nominations to include:

- Contact information of submitter and nominated individual.
- Excellence Category (Customer Service, Finance, Frontline, Human Resources, Innovation, Leadership, Marketing, Management, Operations, Technology, and others...)
- Applicant Biography (100-150 words)
- Narrative introducing the individual and why they are deserving of recognition (500 to 1,000 words) in a word document.
- Resume in pdf format.
- Letters of Recommendation in pdf format:
 - Letter of recommendation from a supervisor.
 - Letter of recommendation from a peer or subordinate.
- Additional supporting documentation, if desired.
- Photography: Submit a minimum of one professional headshot (high resolution, 300 dpi). Up to three additional relevant high-resolution images of the professional may also be submitted to showcase the individual. Recommended file sizes 1 MB – 5 MB.) Photo credits required.
- Videos may also be submitted, if desired, via a YouTube link.

Emerging Leader of the Year Entry Requirements & Criteria

This award recognizes an up-and-coming young professional who has exhibited outstanding leadership and accomplishments in their career. IPMI honors an emerging leader each year to promote and recognize the best and brightest young professionals in the industry. Nomination materials should exhibit the following:

- Serve in a parking, transportation, and/or mobility position at the time of the nomination and has worked for a minimum of two years in the industry, demonstrating exceptional leadership.
- Commitment to advancing unique and innovative ideas.
- Professional character and reputation.
- A record of service and leadership of IPMI and/or its affiliates.
- Indications of service and leadership include participation on boards, committees, task forces, publications, and presentations, etc.
- Community service including civic organizations outside the industry.
- Service to the profession above and beyond normal job responsibilities.
- Service to educational organizations and agencies other than IPMI as well as other contributions to the profession.

Nominations to include:

- Contact information of submitter and nominated individual.
- Applicant Biography (100-150 words).
- Narrative introducing the individual and why they are deserving of recognition (500 to 1,000 words), including professional achievements, advancement of creative innovations or ideas, and exceptional leadership in the industry.
- Resume and list of the nominee's extraordinary accomplishments.
- Letter of recommendation from a supervisor, member of the organization's management team, or from a peer.
- Additional supporting documentation, if desired.
- Photography: Submit a minimum of one professional headshot (high resolution, min. of 1 MB dpi). Include up to three relevant high-resolution images of the professional to showcase the individual. Photo credits required.
- Videos may also be submitted, if desired, via a YouTube link.
- Copy of government-issued photo identification demonstrating the nominee is 40 years of age or younger as of December 31, 2022.

Organization of the Year Entry Requirements & Criteria

This award recognizes an organization that demonstrates comprehensive operational excellence across a wide range of areas, including organizational culture, customer service, innovation, and more.

Nomination materials should exhibit the following:

- Contribution to the parking, transportation, and mobility industry.
- Commitment to advancing unique and innovative ideas and creativity.
- Breadth of programs and services.
- Demonstration of standards of excellence in customer service, operations, finance, human resources, professional development, marketing, and more.

Nominations to include:

- Contact information of submitter and nominated organization.
- Narrative introducing the organization and why it is deserving of recognition (1,000 - 2,000 words), including a comprehensive list of programs and services provided, as well as statistics and figures that describe the volume, size, efficiency, service, etc. of the organization.
- Brief description of a specific cutting-edge program or service implemented in the last two years. Discuss the outcome of this new program or service and how it affected the organization and/or its customers.
- Organizational chart in pdf format.
- Operating statement in pdf format.
- Brochures, annual reports, or related supporting materials in pdf format.
- Overview of the organization from the appropriate manager or director.
- Letter of recommendation from another organization.
- Customer satisfaction survey data, if available and/or appropriate.
- Organization's logo in high-quality format (300 dpi min.).
- A minimum of four and a maximum of six photographs (high-resolution, a min. of 1 MB or higher) showcasing the organization, its staff, and its work. Photo credits required.
- Videos may also be submitted, if desired, via a YouTube link.

James M. Hunnicutt, CAPP, Industry Professional of the Year Entry Requirements & Criteria

This award recognizes a professional who has exhibited outstanding leadership and accomplishments in their career.

Nomination materials should exhibit the following:

- Serve in a parking, transportation, and/or mobility position at time of nomination.
- Contribution(s) to the parking, transportation, and mobility industry.
- Commitment to advancing unique and innovative ideas.
- Professional character and reputation.
- A record of service and leadership of IPMI and/or its affiliates.
- Indications of service and leadership include participation on boards, committees, task forces, publications, and presentations, etc.
- Community service including civic organizations outside the industry.
- Service to the profession above and beyond normal job responsibilities.
- Service to educational organizations and agencies other than IPMI as well as other contributions to the profession.

Nominations to include:

- Contact information of submitter and nominated individual.
- Applicant Biography (100 – 200 words).
- Narrative introducing the individual and why they are deserving of recognition (500 – 1000 words) in word format, including professional achievements, advancement of creative innovations or ideas, and exceptional leadership in the industry.
- Resume and summary of nominee's extraordinary accomplishments.
- Letters of Recommendation in pdf format:
 - Letter of recommendation from a supervisor or member of the organization's management team.
 - Letter of recommendation from a peer or subordinate.
- Additional supporting documentation, if desired.
- Photography: Submit a minimum of one professional headshot (high resolution, 1 MB). Up to three additional relevant high-resolution images of the professional may also be submitted to showcase the individual. Photo credits required.
- Videos may also be submitted, if desired, via a YouTube link.

Recognition Package

- Bragging rights plus a fancy new award, sent directly to you!
- On-stage recognition at the 2022 IPMI Parking & Mobility Conference & Expo in New Orleans, LA from July 24-27, 2022.
- A feature highlighting winners in Parking & Mobility magazine.
- Award recognition on the IPMI website.
- Press Release issued by IPMI announcing winners, including a featured posting on the IPMI website.
- Template press release to modify and publicize your award.
- Digital marketing package featuring the new 2022 IPMI Professional Recognition Awards logo in multiple formats for your organization to use on marketing, websites, emails, etc. Hyperlink to your website or the IPMI awards website feature showcasing your award.

Login and start your award submission here.

Questions? Contact us at awards@parking-mobility.org.